V. BOARD AND SUPERINTENDENT REPORTS

Amy Austin – Communications Committee has discussed print, email, blogs, social media, frequency, and other capabilities. The Foundation needs volunteers for Scarlet & Grey and spring grant cycle totaled $3,600. Rachel Witt – Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion committee have created definitions available on the corporation website. Diversity: A broad range of valued differences and experiences across a spectrum of qualities, traits, and characteristics of life. Equity: providing students with resources and opportunities that meet their individual needs. Inclusion: an environment where differences are embraced to ensure opportunities aren't limited and all feel a sense of belonging and respect. Culture: The intersectionality of individual and group experiences and identities as they contribute to the tapestry of our community. The high school students on this committee have been great contributors. They have met with the administrators to provide input on textbook and resources for a new ethnic class that will be offered 2021-22 school year.

Karen Springer – GLASS discussed data related to personnel and students. Park Board, shelter reservations are now open online, pool opens Memorial Day weekend, and Happy Hollow dog park Ribbon Cutting Ceremony on May 12th 10am.

Yue Yin – Public Schools Foundation, next grant cycle starts August 7th, authors can partner with other community members but the author must be a WLCSC teacher. Grants are up to $2,000.

Brad Marley – Redevelopment; Wellness Center is now at 950 members.

Tom Schott – Becky Swanson, Katie Hembrough and prom committee, special thank you for a successful prom for our students.
